Subject: Request for Issuance of a DepEd Advisory for the National Public and Private Schools Journalism Conference, Contest & Awards (NPPSJCCA) 2025

Dear Mr. Farnazo:

Greetings of peace and excellence in education!

On behalf of Aloysian Publications, we respectfully write to request the issuance of a DepEd Advisory to cascade information about our upcoming National Public and Private Schools Journalism Conference, Contest & Awards (NPPSJCCA) 2025 to all public and private schools nationwide.

The event will be conducted online via Zoom and Google Drive on October 24-26, 2025, and is open to officially enrolled students from Grades 4-12 across public and private institutions. With the theme "Recognizing Excellence, Honing Integrity in Student Reporting," this national journalism event aims for: 1. Develop journalistic competence among Filipino learners through participation in competitive and values-driven activities, 2. Uphold ethical, responsible, and critical campus journalism aligned with the DepEd National Schools Press Conference (NSPC) Guidelines and 3. Recognize student excellence and amplify the role of campus journalists as pillars of truth, democracy, and public accountability.

This activity directly supports the principles and objectives of Republic Act 7079 (Campus Journalism Act of 1991) and the DepEd's efforts in strengthening journalism as a co-curricular pursuit. Multiple writing and broadcasting categories in English and Filipino will be offered, including News Writing, Editorial Writing, Radio Broadcasting, and Online Publishing, among others. Certificates of Participation and Recognition will be provided, and all events will be conducted under strict online monitoring and NSPC-compliant rules.

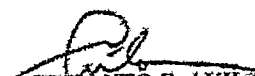

This event shall strictly adhere to DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 (Instituting Measures to Ensure the Continuous and Unhampered Delivery of Basic Education Services), ensuring no disruption of classes and that participants attend on official business or during approved schedules.

In line with this, we humbly seek the Department's support by issuing an advisory that will enable the proper dissemination of this educational activity to schools, division offices, and regional offices.

We are hopeful for your positive response and continued support for this national initiative in the field of campus journalism. Should your office require additional information or documents, we are more than willing to comply. Should you require further information, you may contact the organizing committee at Email: submissions@alloysianpublications.com, Mobile: (0921-579-4211) and Website: <https://alloysianpublications.com>.

Thank you very much for your continued commitment to education and nation-building.

Sincerely yours,

DDDr. CRISANTO E. AVILA, DCED, EdD, PhD

☐ RATIONALE

This event supports the Department of Education's National Schools Press Conference (NSPC) Guidelines and aligns with Republic Act 7079, also known as the Campus Journalism Act of 1991, which promotes the development and growth of campus journalism as a means of strengthening ethical values, critical thinking, and love of country among the youth. By offering a wide range of journalism categories, this online platform becomes a venue for students from both public and private schools to practice freedom of expression responsibly, hone their journalistic skills, and be recognized for their excellence in campus journalism.

OBJECTIVES

1. To develop journalistic competence among Filipino students by providing a national venue for demonstrating their writing, broadcasting, and publishing skills.
2. To uphold ethical and responsible journalism aligned with the DepEd NSPC guidelines and the values enshrined in RA 7079.
3. To recognize outstanding student journalists and campus publications from across the country, fostering motivation and integrity in the practice of student reporting.
