DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 121, series 2024s

BRIGADAHAN SA ESKWELAHAN: A CALL FOR CHARITY TO REBUILD SCHOOLS AFFECTED BY FLOOD

TO : OIC, Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Chief, School Governance and Operations Division (SGOD)
Chief, Curriculum Implementation Division (CID)
All Concerned Education Program Supervisors
All Concerned Public Schools District Supervisors
All Concerned School Heads
All Concerned Division Personnel
All Concerned Teaching Personnel This Division

1. In relation to the recent devastating floods in the Davao Region, this Office calls for voluntary support in rebuilding schools through "BRIGADAHAN SA ESKWELAHAN: A Call for Charity to Rebuild Schools Affected by Flood" spearheaded by the organization Social Mobilization through Learners Formation Development (LDF).
2. The devastating impact of the recent flooding has severely damaged several schools in our area, disrupting the education and well-being of numerous students and educators.
3. In response to this urgent need, the LDF has initiated a campaign to gather support for the rebuilding of these educational institutions and to help restore normalcy for the affected students and teachers.
4. This initiative seeks assistance in various forms including foods, clothes and medicines as well as volunteer support for cleanup and reconstruction efforts. Financial contributions are also encouraged to support the rebuilding endeavors.
5. For financial support and other resources needed by the affected schools, please reach out to MRS. SALLY MAGHINAY, Senior Education Program Specialist in SOCMOB, through the following contact information: Facebook: Sally Maghinay, Email: Rosalie.maghinay@deped.gov.ph and contact number 09171364938.
